The children of Aksakovo – the ones that hold and keep the free Bulgarian spirit

The youngest citizens of Aksakovo Municipality turned into the biggest holders and keepers of the free Bulgarian spirit on March 3 - 143 years of the Bulgarian Liberation.

In the year, when the whole world shut down due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the students of the municipal schools, on the initiative of Aksakovo Municipality and the Personal Growth and Development Support Center in Aksakovo, combined their creativity, talent and love for the mother country to give an exciting performance under the title of "For you, Bulgaria..." where they breathed life to one of the most powerful Bulgarian poems devoted to Bulgaria and to the heroism of all those who chose freedom over their life.

In keeping with all safety regulations, but in the tradition of the adamant Bulgarian spirit, the children recorded their performances at their homes, and gave us as a present on the occasion of 143 years of the Liberation their beautiful patriotic greetings in the form of a virtual performance.

Actors in the performance are children from St. Cyril and St. Methodius Secondary School in Ignatievo, St. Kliment Ohridski Secondary School in Aksakovo, St. Kliment Ohridski Primary School in Izvorsko Village, St. Kliment Ohridski Primary School in Kichevo Village, Ivan Vazov United School in Lyuben Karavelovo Village, and the folklore dance schools at the Personal Growth and Development Support Centres with the children from the town of Ignatievo and Lyuben Karavelovo Village.

As per the regulations, they read the poems of the Bulgarian classical authors in the form of a competition. The residents of the Municipality can enjoy their talent by visiting the official website of Aksakovo Municipality where all selected performances have been uploaded. The most powerful performances will be awarded. Prizes will also be awarded by Aksakovo Municipality and by the Personal Growth and Development Support Centre to all participants in acknowledgement of the power and spirit, the sense of pride and the unbroken national spirit the youngest residents of the Municipality demonstrated and evoked among the residents of the Municipality on the day on which we celebrate our national holiday.

Ivayla Petrova will try her strength with teams from all over Bulgaria

Ivayla Boyanova Petrova, who is a first-grade pupil at St. Kliment Ohridski Secondary School in Aksakovo, is the town's great hope for adding her footprints to the list of the greatest names in the track-and-field athletics.

The 7-year-old girl lives in Aksakovo. She has been a registered track-and-field athlete of Chernomorski Yunak Athletic Club since September 2018. She took her first steps into the track and field athletics in Prostor Hall under the guidance of Rositsa Naidenova and our fellow citizen Rumen Stoev.

In March 2019 she ranked third at the Black Sea Youth Games Tournament. The team ranked second in the tournament. She kept on practicing hard every day and soon her hard work paid off. In September 2019 she ranked first at the Black Sea Youth Games Tournament, Varna.

In October 2020 she won bronze at the State Individual Team Championship for the Republic of Bulgaria cups.

Following some circumstances, she has continued to train for the same club since February 2021 but under the guidance of Eduard Radev. This calendar year Ivayla will have three competitions in which she will try her strengths with teams from all over Bulgaria.

We wish her luck and success and many more ahead!

The Court of Appeal donated books to Public Community Centre „Prosveta 1905“

The administration, judges and all employees of the Court of Appeal in Varna (CAV) made February 14 a triple cause for celebration for the residents of Aksakovo Municipality. On this day of the year when love and wine is celebrated, the magistrates, by their generous act of book giving, turned themselves into real benefactors for Public Community Centre „Prosveta 1905“ in Aksakovo. On this International Book Giving Day they responded to the need of the community centre's library of new literature to add to its stock.

„There are a lot of young families, pupils and children living in the town, so we've just tried to help“, said the CAV President Vanuhi Arakelyan. For them the magistrates of the Court donated fiction, non-fiction, high school literature and English books.

„Each and every book that is worth reading is just another step forward into the boundless world of knowledge – the greatest wealth a person can have. That is why we believe that we need to help children discover the joy of reading in their early age and teach them being readers for a lifetime“, added the servants of Themis.

The Mayor of Aksakovo Municipality, Eng. Atanas Stoilov, sent a thank you note to the grantors for their mission as ambassadors of reading.
